

KENDRA J. JUE

EDUCATION

University of California, Hastings College of the Law, J.D. (top 25%)
June 2003

Managing Editor, Hastings' Communications and Entertainment Law Journal
2002-2003

Discussion Group Leader, Contracts Class
2001-2003

University of California, Santa Barbara, High Honors,
B.A. Political Science with Emphasis in Public Service, Minor in History
June 2000

WORK EXPERIENCE

Shannon B. Jones Law Group, Danville, CA - November 2007 through Present
Attorney – Analyze cases, research legal issues, draft memoranda, pleadings, discovery and motions in connection with representation of real estate agents and brokerage firms in litigation arising from property transactions.

Reed Smith LLP, Oakland, CA - September 2003 through October 2007
Litigation Associate
Provided representation on the local, regional, and national counsel levels; Experienced in: researching and analyzing legal issues; drafting memoranda and correspondence, preparing and responding to pleadings and motions; interacting with clients, opposing counsel, witnesses, and experts; handling and coordinating complex discovery; participating in court appearances; using and understanding various technical programs including Word, Excel, Casemap, Powerpoint, and Livenote; preparing cases and witnesses for depositions and trials; settlement negotiations and finalization.

Crosby, Heafy, Roach & May, Oakland, CA - June through August 2002
Summer Associate
(Merged with Reed Smith LLP in January 2003)

Corporation Counsel, Washington, D.C., January through March 2000
Intern through U.C. Santa Barbara's UCDC Program
Prepared for and participated in bench trial

Santa Barbara District Attorney's Office, Santa Barbara, CA - 1999
Intern, Criminal Investigator's Office

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS & INTERESTS

Admitted to California Bar (State Bar No. 226992) and to practice before the Northern, Eastern, and Central District Courts; Member Contra Costa County Bar Association

Enjoy advocating for children's rights